HGHI TO SAVE FERGUSON.

Mr. G. Howard Ferguson, M.P.
P. for Grenville, the gentlemany who exposed Mr. Evanturel, by reading his famous letter in the House yesterday afternoon.
Mr. Ferguson has for some time back been earning money from the Dominion Government by doing old jobs in his spare time, one of which was an investigation into alleged graft among the employees of the Trent Valley Canal. By doing this Mr. Ferguson laid himself open to heavy penalties as well as to lose his scat. This was brought to the attention of the Government by a despatch from Ottawa the other morning and there is an idea that Mr. Evanturel may have been the avenging langel. However that may be, the Government took alarm and Mr. Ferguson beam frightened lest some one should indiet him in the courts and have him heavily fined. In the circumstances, Mr. Foy in troduced a bill in the House yesterday to indemity him for his breach of the rules of the House and of the law, and in doing so sought to combine with the first reading of the bill a motion to suspended her ules preventing the passage of the bill without a two-days notice. Had Mr. Rowell consented to allow the rules to be usupended without notice there wis a manufactured to the service of the control pend the rules preventing the pas-sage of the bill without a two-days' notice. Had Mr. Rowell consented to allow the rules to be nded without notice there could have been no discussion upon the merits of the Bill. He, however, was quite willing to al-low the Bill as it related to Mr. Ferguson to pass if he would state to the House that he committed the breach of the law in ignor-ance. But Mr. McGarry replied by declaring that the Government would not be a "suppliant" to the

Under the circumstances Mr. Rowell opposed the suspension of the rules, and the House squabbled the Rill all night. The at tempt of the Government to rush the Bill through the House and prevent all discussion on it was an effort of the brute majority to gag'' the members of the Opposigag the memoers of the Opposi-tion. But it failed. Mr. Rowell very pluckily stuck to his guns, and demanded that the question be discussed. The conduct of the discussed. The conduct of the Government in thus trying to shield a member who has been guilty of breaking the rules and to do it in an unconstitutional way, shows the difference between conduct and the conduct of Mr. Rowell in the Evanturel mat-Mr. Rowell in the Evanturel mat-ter. Mr. Evanturel was guilty and Mr. Rowell condemned him, Mr. Ferguson is guilty and the ent attempts to save him from punishment, just as it saved Hanna, who was also found guilty. In the Hanna case evidence was suppressed and the inquiry burked, and in the Ferguson case an

CHURCHILL AND THE NAVY.

In introducing the naval, estimates into the lunperial Parliameth, yesterday the Right Hon. Winston Churchill showed that they called for the largest sum or money ever granted for such a purpose. He also made the statementh that "Every delay, accidental or deliberate, by the next strongest owner will be matched by us, and we shall only complete our organisations as or when needed." This is apother intimation to foremany that Britain has no desire to force the pace in the matter of naval increases. His pletian has no desire to force the pace in the matter of naval increases. His pletian has no desire to force the pace in the matter of naval hered to the sixty per cent. standard. An idea of the formitable nature of some of the additions to the navy was given when Mr. Churchill stated that the new fiften-nich gau would hurl a projectile weighting nearly a ton a distance of twelve miles. The First Lord of the Admiralty declared that British and no diffictually in findings all the

Mr. Churchilli was not very happy or circumspect in his reference & Canada and her duty in the matter of naval defence. He said that "the Admiratly view had been expounded in the Canadian memorandum, to which the Admiratly adhered and the facts had been strengthened by the passage of time. They continue an absolute justification of the Canadian action therewise. The Churchilli forgets that the Canadian people are divided on the question as to Canada's share in its defence of the Empire, and that his arraying himself on the side of the Dominion Government is not a position that he should assume.
